

Heaven
Pastor Andy Veith
October 2, 2022

Transitional Housing

Scripture: Revelation 21:1-2, Luke 23:39-43, Revelation 6:9-11

Q#1 - What happens to believers when they die? Rev. 21:1-2

Q#2 - Is the intermediate heaven a physical or spiritual realm? - Luke 23:39-43

Q#3 - What will the intermediate heaven be like? Rev 6:9-11

Q#4 - Can people who currently reside in the intermediate heaven see earth? - Hebrews 12:1

One Thing

Your place in Heaven will seem to be made for you and you alone, because you were made for it. - C.S. Lewis

At Home Study Guide – Heaven

For the week of October 2, 2022

Heaven – do we really have an accurate understanding of our eternal home? We hope this series will help you understand the glorious truths of the Bible more fully, so that you will grow in joy as you think about heaven. Use this guide in your small group or as a regular reflection on the truths of the past Sunday's sermon.

Day 1: Have you ever thought about the fact that the place we go to now, like the thief on the cross, is not our final resting place, but an intermediate state?

Day 2: What did you learn about the difference between the intermediate place we go to when we die now (Luke 23:39-43) vs. the New Heaven and Earth that the Bible speaks of in Rev. 21:1-2?

Day 3: Read Rev. 6:9-11. These martyrs for Christ wear clothes as they wait. What are they waiting for, and how will God make things right?

Day 4: Reflect on this sermon today. How does it give you hope and encouragement because of what God has in store for us in the future (Rev. 21:3)?

One Thing

Your place in Heaven will seem to be made for you and you alone, because you were made for it. - C.S. Lewis
