If...

We live in a culture that for the most part still acknowledges an idea of God and especially during hardship. It is common today following a tragedy for leaders to say, “we offer you our thoughts and prayers.” Many are praying, crying out for God to start a revival where people will turn to God. What would it be like if more individuals really turned to God in humility with repentant hearts? Throughout the Bible the story of God’s people is that when they turn to Him, He answers their prayers. When they turn to Him individually, He forgives their sin. When they turn to Him collectively, He does a restorative work in their community. 2 Chronicles 7:14 provides a model prayer for how we can humble ourselves and seek God’s favor today.

- When have you humbled yourself so significantly that it resulted in personal revival? What motivated your humility at the time?
- How did Pastor Andy bridge the promise made to Israel in 2 Chronicles to the people of God today? Notice the continuity with Jeremiah 29:13, Matthew 6:9-13; and 2 Chronicles 7:14.
- According to James 4:6 and Philippians 2:3, how does God see people who are proud versus people who are humble?
- What does it mean to turn our back on evil like we read in verse 14?
- What might it look like specifically in your life if God were to renew your love for Him? Ask God to start or continue His reviving work in you that it might spread to your family, your neighborhood, your church, and our community.
- Set 2 Chronicles 7:14 to memory that it might be a verse God will use to cause you to more quickly turn to Him.
