There is tension in this life between our expectations and reality. We seek what can satisfy us, but nothing in this world ever will. Solomon already went on this quest for us, and in Ecclesiastes, he provides wisdom from God. “[T]his is not the kind of book that we keep reading until we get the answer, but the kind of book that helps us know how to serve God when we do not have all the answers.” (Philip Ryken) Join us on this quest for the one who can truly satisfy.

1. One of the truths we see in chapter 10 is the importance of wisdom? What truths about wisdom do you find in this chapter?

2. Life, as compare to business in these verses, contains adventure and unknown perplexities (11:1-2). When have you had to trust the Lord (cast) in total commitment (your bread) for the future (you will find) and patiently wait for his answer (after many days)?

3. How does this passage encourage you to take every opportunity to work boldly but wisely (11:3-4)?
