

Defeat: Fear of Failure!

Scripture: Matthew 14:22-32

1. The fear of failure and the will of God – vv.22-26

2. The fear of failure and the voice of truth – v. 27-32

ONE THING

The fear of failure says, stay in the boat.
Jesus says, "Come," walk on water.

What do you do with your fears? The Bible tells us when God is our light and our salvation, there is nothing to fear (Psalm 27:1). How can God and His Word give us wisdom and direction to handle the fears we face? We encourage you to use these questions to help you discuss with others what you learned from the message today.

1. Jesus often teaches us through situations in life. What is the fear Peter dealt with in this passage? When has this fear been an issue in your life?
2. Why did you fear? Dig deeper and ask yourself why defeat or failure can be a difficult issue in your life?
3. What did Jesus say when he saved Peter? Talk about why lack of faith in God leads to fear in your own life.
4. What are some ways that you can increase your faith in God?
