

The Radical Love of God

1. The Radical Love of God invites us to believe – Luke 24:1-12
2. The Radical Love of God invites us to surrender – Romans 12:1-2
3. The Radical Love of God invites us to live – Galatians 5:1
4. The Radical love of God invites us to continue in Him – 1 John 2:28

ONE THING

A church with no walls knows faith has no limits, has hope in God's premeditated plan,
and lives out the radical love of God.

For the week of April 12, 2020

“So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love.” (1 Corinthians 13:13 ESV) We have learned about limitless faith and hope in God’s plan, and today we will focus on the greatness of God’s radical love. May God’s love through Jesus change and renew you through this message.

1. Read Romans 5:7-8. What does that tell you about God’s radical love?

2. Because of his mercy, how does God call you to live, according to Romans 12:1-2 and Galatians 5:1?

3. Read John 15:1-11 along with 1 John 2:28. Because of what Jesus has done, in what was do we continue to abide or remain connected to him?
