Do you sometimes feel like Thomas? He gets a bad rap for being “Doubting Thomas,” but the Lord did call him and use him. Let’s learn today about Thomas, ourselves, and how God can and does use each of us who are followers and disciples of Jesus.

1. In John 11:8-16, what do you learn about Thomas and about yourself, as a follower of Jesus? Do you tend to protect yourself or give of yourself?

2. As you read John 14:1-6, can you relate to Thomas’s confusion? What do you do with your confusion? How much do you trust Jesus in your confusion?

3. Are you honest with Jesus, like Thomas in John 20:24-29, both in your doubts and in your faith? How can you grow in your confidence in Jesus?
