Don't panic. I'm with you.

What are you afraid of? The Bible tells us when God is our light and our salvation, there is nothing to fear (Psalm 27:1). How can God and His Word give us wisdom and direction to handle the inward fears that can shape us? We encourage you to use these questions to help you discuss with others what you learned from the message today.

1. Fear of the future or fear of the unknown can sometimes control and overpower us. In what ways do you struggle with this fear?

2. Isaiah 41:10 is an awesome promise. In this verse God gives two commands with five promises. The first two are promises for right now. What does God mean by these?

   a. I am with you

   b. I am your God

3. The last three are promises for the future. What does God mean by these

   a. I will strengthen you

   b. I will help you

   c. I will uphold you
