For the week of May 23, 2021

What are you afraid of? The Bible tells us when God is our light and our salvation, there is nothing to fear (Psalm 27:1). How can God and His Word give us wisdom and direction to handle the inward fears that can shape us? We encourage you to use these questions to help you discuss with others what you learned from the message today.

1. More than any other person, Jesus knows what it is like to be alone. Read Matt. 26:31-35, 56 and Matt. 27:45-46 and reflect on how Jesus was cut off from fellowship, even from God, for a time.
2. Jesus experienced broken fellowship with God because of our sins so that we could have restored fellowship with God. What does that mean and what is your response to that amazing truth?
3. Read Romans 8:38-39. Can anything separate you from the love of God? Pray about those things that cause you to doubt that truth, that God will help you to trust him more.

ONE THING

Jesus experienced being alone so we never have to.

Psalm 22:1-2 - My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from saving me, so far from my cries of anguish? My God, I cry out by day, but you do not answer, by night, but I find no rest.

*Psalm 22:19 - But you, LORD, do not be far from me.
You are my strength; come quickly to help me.*
