Treasures • Matthew 6:19-24

Quick Review

We are continuing in our Red Letter series this week which is part of Jesus' longest recorded sermon in the New Testament. We encourage you to read Matthew 5-7 in its entirety at least once each week during the series. In your time with the Lord and with your Growth Group, ask and answer these questions to help guide you in responding to Jesus' message from this section of Matthew 5-7.

Looking back at your outline or notes, what stood out to you most from the message on Sunday?

Diving into the passage alone or together

CONTEXT:

How does the particular section in Matthew 5-7 connect with what immediately precedes or follows it?

OBSERVATION:

What is the main topic of this section? Is there a particular word picture that Jesus uses, and why do you think he uses it?

MEANING:

What does this section reveal about who Jesus is, and what he came into the world to do? What is he trying to say, in your own words?

APPLICATION:

What does the passage teach you about being a disciple of Jesus? In what way do you need to change as a result of what you learned from this passage?
